Object ID: 1

Fair Market Value: $XX.XX

Category: Kitchen

Item: Apple Peeler

Circa: 1878

Material: Cast Iron / Wood

Origin: Reading Pennsylvania

Maker: Reading Hardware Company

Provenance: Passed down thru family on mothers side from Ohio

Description:

The "Turntable 78" made by the Reading Hardware Company of Reading, PA. This peeler has a patent date of 1878. The gears are protected by an ornate, decorated cover. The mechanism is canted at an angle to improve visibility and insure that the parings fall into a receptacle. This specimen has both a push off and a blossom cutter and features an anti-reverse pawl to keep it from being cranked backwards.

Condition: Very Good – Shows typical patina for a 120+ year old utensil.

Measurements: 16 x 9
